Guendalina Cerruti
Portfolio 2021

Dramas, carefree, confidence, coolness, cuteness
Are people ready to lose their cultural identity?
Has anybody seen my love?
Disappointed affection, weakly emotional,
oversharing.
La mia generazione è giovane e triste.
So banal, self-esteem, Millennials, socially awkward,
I like selfie I love likes.
The confidence of whom had to hold on to their identity.
Framing, editing, composing, branding.
How much attraction or revulsion we can feel in front of the representation of emotions.
How strong is the experience of loving a child.
7 ways to deal with strong emotions.
I bring you two flowers, one is me and one is you.
Should I show you how horrible I am?
What do you see when you see me?
I might just say how I feel!
Senseless scars.
Thanks a Million
Happy Birthday!

My work consists of installations, objects, sculptures and paintings. They are the result of my daily practice of layering and combining ideas, in an attempt to map out the thinking and emotional processes that help me navigate the experience of my surroundings. I see my installations as collections of narratives, micro-universes dense with sentiment, sarcasm and candour, creating new aesthetic and emotive experiences which lie between reality, representation and imagination.

In my practice I often combines elements which are industrially fabricated with handcrafted ones, using a variety of mediums and techniques, drawing from domestic spaces, and interior decorating and furnishing.

I believe my work has a strong ability to communicate, through its transparency and expressiveness its presence evokes a person more than an object. The work is friendly, easy to talk to, and has deep toughts about the world it lives in.
